A day with the skipper spring

The skipper reads the wind before leaving the harbour. A sheltered cove, a swim and a slow lunch make up the afternoon.

This note is part of the 2019 Tiera house collection. The press office can arrange further background, interviews and a selection of photographs.