Bread before breakfast spring

The bakery starts while the harbour is still quiet. The first loaves cool before the terrace tables are dressed.

This note is part of the 2026 Tiera house collection. The press office can arrange further background, interviews and a selection of photographs.